Company Overview

Dr. Eckel Animal Nutrition is all about innovative feed additives made in Germany. Our value-orientated family business was founded by Dr Antje Eckel in 1994. We have meanwhile gained international success and an excellent reputation. Indeed, Dr. Eckel is one of the world's foremost companies in the sector with a specific focus on animal welfare, developing products that make animal nutrition more resource-efficient, climate-friendly and healthy. This is how we contribute to sustainable global nutrition.

At Dr Eckel, we believe that there are always new ways of doing things. As a value-oriented family business, excellence, pioneering spirit and responsibility for people, animals and the environment are in our blood. Our innovative products make animal production better, healthier and more profitable. This is our contribution to sustainable global nutrition, and this is what we love.
